Taylor Cox

Administrative Assistant/Shipping Coordinator

P: (801) 486-0600

E: TaylorC1@NACVA.com

Taylor Cox began her position with NACVA® and the CTI™ in April of 2017 as an Administrative Assistant/Shipping Coordinator. She is primary communications back up to the lead receptionist. She has years of experience working closely with veterinarians across the United States assisting with pathology testing. Taylor has also worked closely with software developers to create specialized programs for the animal pathology industry. Her experience with shipping and receiving items is an absolute benefit to her logistics duties at NACVA and the CTI. She is in charge of coordinating the shipping for all events throughout the year as well as fulfilling daily orders for members. Taylor works closely with many departments within the organization, which is extremely important in order for her to facilitate her job in a timely manner. Her positive and professional attitude allows her to work well with associates and members alike. She is also involved with various charities, including: Best Friends Animal Society, The Road Home, Salt Lake County Animal Services, and the Humane Society.
