E: LynneJ1@NACVA.com

Lynne Johnson, PMP, LSSBB, began her career with NACVA® and the CTI® in 2015. She is a highly organized professional who brings 14+ years of comprehensive experience in diverse workplace environments. She utilizes an in-depth knowledge of strategic planning, excellent writing and editorial skills, and a broad skill set managing projects and teams. For NACVA/CTI, she is the Associate Editor to The Value Examiner (TVE); QuickRead (QR); the Journal of Forensic and Investigative Accounting (JFIA); The Association brochure; and Association News. Other responsibilities include: working with the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA) and the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) on accreditation management for the Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) and the Master Analyst in Financial Forensics (MAFF) designations; oversee and support all governance boards (Executive Advisory Board [EAB], Ethics Oversight Board [EOB], Litigation Forensics Board [LFB], Standards Board [SDB], and Valuation Credentialing Board [VCB]); manage Quality Review as it applies to the entire organization, including: catalogs, brochures, Association communications, educational programs, HTMLs, ads, and websites, maintaining the company's esteemed level of excellence. Graduating with honors, Lynne holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Social Work from Utah State University. She is certified by the Project Management Institute (PMI) as a Project Management Professional (PMP) and certified as an IASSC Lean Six Sigma Black Belt (LSSBB). Her fervor for helping others has landed her opportunities as: the first female Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Team Negotiator for the Sheriff's Department in her hometown county; Children's Justice Center Advisory Board Member; National Coalition Against Domestic Violence Member; Youth Self-Awareness Program co-facilitator; and Anger Management Power and Control co-facilitator; among others, providing support to those in need.
